Keep in your prayers.....

In addition to those you hold in your own heart, please keep in your prayers those from our congregation.

Sandra Fry & family

Margery Munro

*Those of our congregation struggling with seen and unseen illness, our indigenous brothers and sisters,
those who have been mistreated due to their gender, sexual orientation or background.*

God of many names and many faces, God who looks like me and like you, God whose voice and presence fills this world, help us to see you in every person we meet, and to recognize that each place we stand, each encounter we have, is Holy Ground...today and every day. Amen

Please call the office, the minister or pastoral care team when family and friends need comfort and prayer. The care ministry wants to extend the congregation's support. Call the office to let us know of celebrations- births, adoptions, engagements, weddings and anniversaries.

CARING AND FELLOWSHIP

➤ UCW Luncheon

The members of the UCW are meeting for a luncheon at “La Porto A Casa”, which is located at 3500 Fallowfield Road, on Monday, December 11th at 12:00pm. Please contact Marilyn Fischer at 613-825-5879 for more details.

➤ Come Sing Noel

*Come and hear local church choirs sing their Christmas music.
Come join in and sing carols with members of other churches.
Come make a joyful noise.
Come Sing Noel!*

The concert will be held tonight Sunday December 10th at 7:00 pm in the Sanctuary at Barrhaven United. This is a free concert. You will be invited to make a free will monetary offering to benefit the Barrhaven Food Cupboard. Free refreshments will be available during a social time after the concert.

➤ Friendly Visitors for Margery

Many people in our congregation know Margery Munro, who has worshipped at BUC for many years. She is now living at Starwood Extencicare, at 114 Starwood Road in Cityview area, near Algonquin College. She is eager for visitors. Saturdays and Sundays are particular times she is desiring a friendly visitor.

Would you consider visiting once a month, on a day that works for you? Please contact Mavis Mason 613-825-3387 or mavis.mason@sympatico.ca for further information re setting up a visiting schedule, reflecting the visitors availability. Thank you from Margery!!

➤ Healing Pathway

Your Healing Pathway Practitioners are: Doug Collins, Linda Hearty, Melanie Macdonald and Cathy Murphy. To book a Healing Pathway session, please contact Cathy Murphy at 613-867-8267.

➤ Meditation

The Meditation Group that meets on Wednesday evenings in the Healing Pathways Room at 7:30, will be taking a break during the Advent/Christmas season.

We will resume our sessions on January 3 at 7:30 p.m..

➤ BUC Family Looking for Sitter

A family in Barrhaven (Woodroffe and Queensbury) with 2 children 8 years and 10 years old is seeking a mature, responsible Sitter to be with the children from 6:30 am to 9:00 am (accompany them to school) and 3:30 pm to 5:00 pm (meet them at school and accompany them home until parents return home)

Serious inquiries only call 613-986-7328 or emailthebenjamins@gmail.com

Thanks!

LEARNING

➤ BUC Book Club

The next meeting of the Book Club will on Tuesday, December 12th at 9:30am in the Music Room. We will be discussing the book “Don’t Lets Go to the Dogs Tonight” by Alexandra Fuller. All are welcome!

➤ Christian Study Group 'Living the Questions'

The final two sessions of the series "An Introduction to Progressive Christianity" will be held on January 3rd and 10th.

We will meet at 9:30 - 11:00 a.m. Wednesdays in the Music Room. The session title for December 3 is 'A Passion for Christ: Paul the Apostle' and on the 10th the theme is 'Out Into the World: Challenges Facing Progressive Christians'.

New opportunities for adult Christian studies will be offered in the new year. Watch 'Learning' for further details.

➤ Activity Bags

Activity bags are available in the Sunshine corner, at the back of the church, for children to take to their seats. Please return the bags and activities at the end of worship for others to use another time.

OUTREACH

➤ Today is White Gift Sunday

We are continuing our tradition of supporting three local ecumenical chaplaincies and welcome representatives from each one to our service today;

- Four members of the Board of the Ottawa West End Community Chaplaincy, which works in the Pinecrest-Queensway area - Neil Hunter (retired Baptist Minister and former Carleton U. Chaplain) who will update us during the service on the work of the chaplaincy; Don West (a member of Bells Corners United), Marcel Laroque and Lynn Miner-Laroque (who run their own lay ministry, Prayers for the People);

- Richard LeBlanc, Executive Director of Centre 507, a drop-in downtown at Centretown United Church; and
- Therese Ladouceur, key volunteer and Board member at the Carlington Community Chaplaincy, which supports the Caldwell Avenue community near the Experimental Farm.

Please grab a coffee or tea after the service and drop by their displays to learn more about the work of these important chaplaincies which are supported by Ottawa Presbytery of the United Church.

If you are making a financial gift, please use the White Gift envelope that is in your bulletin and if writing a cheque, please write amount on envelope and make it to Barrhaven United Church. Thank you!

➤ The Christmas celebration at The Haven last Sunday afternoon was quite a success!

The room was festive with donated decorations and the baked goodies were enjoyed by all. The children had fun making fancy balls, angels and bells to decorate the tree and listening to the stories. There was lots of chatter amongst the adults and thank you for a special afternoon.

➤ Christmas Food Hampers

There is still time to contact the Barrhaven Food Cupboard if you or someone you know would like to donate a Christmas/special dinner food hamper or make a financial donation towards one. Please see the Food Cupboard website at <http://barrhavenfoodcupboard.ca/Hamper-Program.html> or call 613-823-5323.

➤ Refugee Committee Year-end Update

As the time approaches for the end of our formal sponsorship of our three Syrian families, we would like to bring the congregation up to date on them and our plans for continued refugee sponsorship and support.

Imad Alkaderi and his wife Kinda Alhamali both have good English skills which has helped them to flourish. Kinda has been twice promoted in the Little Scholars Montessori child care group to be the Director of the Fallowfield facility. They moved in the summer into their own apartment, bought a car and Imad is working for Uber while looking for permanent employment.

Sara Kassif and her two adult sons live with Sara's sister, near her brothers' families. Fouad, the eldest works as a carpet installer and Mohannad at Big Rig. Mohannad has plans to go to Algonquin to obtain Canadian certification in Culinary Arts. The sad news was that Sara's husband passed away suddenly in Syria in the Fall.

Zohour Al Mouhamad and her four children, 8, 11, 14 and 17 have settled well into their school routines and are all speaking English. Zouhour is attending intensive English class every morning. Several members of our team maintain contact with her. Najwa says they are grateful for the new, safe life they have here in Canada and all the support the community has provided them. We have given them two installments of the BUC gift cards (Walmart) and the last one will be at year end.

Finally, in conjunction with the SNMC we have submitted to UCC Toronto sponsorship applications for Imad Alkaderi's parents and two adult brothers, and we hope our applications make the 2018 allocation. Support will again be a combined team of BUC, SNMC and possibly Sequoia. We thank BUC's Outreach Ministry and our Council for their support and commitment to refugees as a permanent part of our Outreach. And I must again express my heartfelt thanks for all the wonderful support I have from the BUC team and our congregation.
